An tSeirbhís Náisiúnta Tástála Carranna National Car Testing Service

PLEASE PREPARE FOR YOUR NCT BY ENSURING THAT: please tick

1.	Your car has adequate oil and water.
2.	The boot is empty and your vehicle is clear of all valuables and personal belongings. If baby seats are left in the car for the NCT, it will be checked to ensure it is secure.
3.	Your glove compartment is unlocked and clear of personal belongings, this is to allow for OBD testing.
4.	The vehicle is reasonably clean (especially the underbody).
••	The vehicle is reasonably death (especially the undersody).
5.	The wheel hubcaps are removed (only in the case where wheel nuts are
•	not visible) and the tyres are inflated to the correct pressure.
	mot visible, and the tyres are innated to the correct pressure.
6.	The engine is in a fit state to be tested e.g. cam belt / timing belt. You may be asked to sign a disclaimer at the test centre.
	S .
7.	All seat belts and clips are fully visible (including rear).
8	We also recommend that you have your lights checked and set prior to the
٥.	we also recommend that you have your lights enecked and set prior to the
0.	NCT.
	NCT.
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre.
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test.
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test.
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification will result in the vehicle not being issued an NCT certificate at the time of
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification will result in the vehicle not being issued an NCT certificate at the time of testing.
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification will result in the vehicle not being issued an NCT certificate at the time of testing. You have your test fee of €60.00 (fees are inclusive of VAT and maybe
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification will result in the vehicle not being issued an NCT certificate at the time of testing. You have your test fee of €60.00 (fees are inclusive of VAT and maybe subject to change), plus any cancellation fee (if applicable) payable by cash, debit card and all major credit cards (excluding American Express).
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification will result in the vehicle not being issued an NCT certificate at the time of testing. You have your test fee of €60.00 (fees are inclusive of VAT and maybe subject to change), plus any cancellation fee (if applicable) payable by cash, debit card and all major credit cards (excluding American Express). Your vehicle is at a normal operating temperature prior to arriving at the
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification will result in the vehicle not being issued an NCT certificate at the time of testing. You have your test fee of €60.00 (fees are inclusive of VAT and maybe subject to change), plus any cancellation fee (if applicable) payable by cash, debit card and all major credit cards (excluding American Express).
9.	NCT. Your Vehicle Registration Book, Registration Certificate or Licensing Certificate is with you when you arrive at the test centre. You bring identification (driving licence) with you on the day of the test. The person who brings the car for inspection brings their identification with them (driving licence) as failure to provide the required identification will result in the vehicle not being issued an NCT certificate at the time of testing. You have your test fee of €60.00 (fees are inclusive of VAT and maybe subject to change), plus any cancellation fee (if applicable) payable by cash, debit card and all major credit cards (excluding American Express). Your vehicle is at a normal operating temperature prior to arriving at the

If the above items are not taken care of, NCTS may be unable to test your vehicle.